2006 is an Exciting and Important Year for Idaho State Democrats:

We have a unique opportunity to break the Republican stranglehold on Idaho politics in the coming year. The Bush Administration is on the ropes, softening the ground for us with every move they make. In Idaho, more statewide seats are being left vacant as GOP leadership shifts further to the right. That means there will be more room in the center for US!

The Republicans in the 1st Congressional District primary race are gearing up for a huge internal fight. The candidates are ready to tear each other's hearts out – and that's even before we start talking about their failures. Especially in Idaho, the GOP moderates are being bullied by the right-wing radicals. We will provide the safe place for those moderates and swing voters to cast their ballots.

The 1st Congressional District in northern Idaho is vulnerable:

- Republican Butch Otter is leaving the seat vacant to run for governor
- Our strong candidates include a former corporate counsel for Micron and a small business owner.
- With either one, we know we can do better...

Elect Jerry Brady to the Governor's Office:

- Brady is a media player who ran a close race in the last election cycle. This time, he's going to win.
- Butch Otter – who has questionable moral problems -- will have trouble in eastern Idaho – Brady's home ground.
- With Jerry Brady, We know we can do better...

Hold our own and elect more Democrats to Idaho's Constitutional Offices:

- Retain our hold on the State Superintendent of Public Instruction.
- Pick up at least one more Constitutional Office and have more power on the Land Board.
- We know we can do better...

Re-elect our Democratic incumbent state lawmakers across the state and take back more seats to restore balance in state government:

- In 2006, the GOP leadership in both houses is likely to change drastically. We must put more Democrats in office to hold the extreme right wing in check
- We know we can do better...

We can elect Idaho Democrats up and down the 2006 ticket if we sign-up now, work together, contribute and back our fine Democratic team.
