2006 is an Exciting and Important Year for Montana Democrats:

What's at stake in our elections next year is the future of Montana. These are critical elections if we are to create the kind of Montana we want for ourselves and our children.

Thanks to the strong leadership of Governor Schweitzer, Senator Baucus, and Democratic legislators, Democrats are making great gains this year, including:

- The largest increase in funding for Montana classrooms ever – more than $80 million.
- Finally, making progress toward public education system that helps all students achieve an understanding of the rich history and contemporary culture of Montana's Indian people.
- Getting help to the victims of Hurricane Katrina.

2006 is a critical year because:

- This culture of corruption in Washington D.C. has got to end. Democrats know we can do better. We need to send representatives for working people, seniors, and the children of MT to stand with Max Baucus in the U.S. Senate and in Congress.
- We need to give Gov. Schweitzer a strong working majority in the Legislature to continue to solve problems left by 16 years of Republican neglect and failures.
- We need to put Ken Toole on the Public Service Commission to be a watchdog for families, seniors, schools and nursing homes struggling with skyrocketing energy and heating prices.

The work of all of us in the Democratic Party will be critical to our success next year.

Under the leadership of our Chair, Dennis McDonald, Gov. Schweitzer and Senator Baucus and all of our central committees, we will:

- Build our party by bringing in new people.
- Raise the resources necessary to help our candidates win.
- And elect candidates that represent the people of Montana.

We can elect Montana Democrats up and down the 2006 ticket if we sign-up now, work together, contribute and back our fine Democratic team.
