2006 is an Exciting and Important Year for New Mexico Democrats:

We are excited about reelecting Governor Bill Richardson. He has lead through action, not talk. Because of Governor Richardson, income taxes and capital gains taxes were cut dramatically, contributing to New Mexico's strong economy and consistent job growth, balanced budget and record surplus. The governor also helped working families by cutting income taxes and eliminating the tax on food; helped increase the number of doctors by cutting taxes on medical services; jumpstarted a booming film industry by increasing tax breaks and incentives, resulting in more than $500 million in film-related revenue; and led the charge in the recent special session to provide rebates and home heating relief for every New Mexican. Together with Lt. Governor Diane Denish and the Democratic Legislature, Richardson has moved New Mexico Forward.

In Washington, U.S. Senator Jeff Bingaman has deftly fought for and protected our interests in the Republican Majority and we are pleased that he decided to run another term – and to run hard. Bingaman has traveled across the state and has established an incredible record advancing health care and education in the U.S. Senate, which is an institution that has not been very favorably disposed to helping average Americans. He is joined by our ally in the House of Representatives, Tom Udall, who fights daily to preserve and protect our freedoms.

Meanwhile, in Congressional District 1, our Democratic Attorney General is preparing to knock the socks off of Heather Wilson in a race that is clearly going to be at the center of the fight to restore opportunity to all Americans and the U.S. Congress to responsible and effective Democratic leadership.

Of course that's not all. New Mexico Democrats have the opportunity to:

- ...oust a Republican Land Commissioner
- ...re-elect a Democratic House
- ...elect a new, Democratic Attorney General, Secretary of State, Treasurer, and Auditor.
- ...make gains in the Public Regulation Commission
- ...fight to defend the independence of the New Mexico Judiciary.

It won't be easy, but recent polls show that New Mexicans are proud of our Democratic leaders and eager for change in GOP-controlled Washington - 60% of New Mexicans disapprove of George Bush and his Administration of corporate cronies. With hard work and cooperation, we will do our part to make that change happen and elect Democrats up and down the 2006 ticket
