2006 is an Exciting and Important Year for Nevada Democrats:

2006 is a critical year for Democrats in Nevada. Every single constitutional office is up for election – currently no Democrats hold those seats, and every seat is open! There is a Democratic tide in Nevada, despite our loss at the presidential level in 2004, we picked up 4 seats in our legislature – strengthening our majority in the Assembly and picking up a seat in the Senate.

We have strong candidates running, candidates who will move Nevada in the right direction with an emphasis on issues like education and healthcare. Unlike the Republicans who are advocating for disabling cuts to services we all rely on. Frankly, Nevadans are sick of being at the bottom of every good list and at the top of every bad list.

Democrats say that we CAN do better, and with your help we will get that message out and elect our entire Democratic ticket. We need you to sign up, get involved, and commit to volunteering for the Democratic Party and Democratic candidates throughout 2006, most importantly during early vote and on election day. Mark your calendars now – we need you to succeed.
