2006 is an Exciting and Important Year for Kansas Democrats:

While Republicans are busy bickering about who belongs in their party, Governor Sebelius and Kansas Democrats have:

- Cut millions in wasteful spending through an unprecedented top-to-bottom audit of state government.
- Led the fight to maintain a first-class system of public schools
- Growing more than 20,000 new jobs, and restoring Kansas' credit rating for the first time in nearly five years.
- Reducing the cost of health care for small businesses, and fighting tooth-and-nail to help older Kansans find more affordable prescription drugs.

2006 is a critical year because Kansas Democrats have an opportunity to:

1. Keep a Democrat in the Governor's Office

- Governor Sebelius has made Kansas a stronger state with an independent approach, and has always put the people of Kansas before anything else.

2. Put a Democrat in the Attorney General's office

- Kansans deserve an Attorney General who is focused on the safety and security of each and every Kansan, not someone like Phill Kline who uses the office to pursue a narrow political agenda

3. Re-elect Congressman Dennis Moore, and send more Democrats to DC

- Congressman Moore needs more Democratic support in Washington, DC. Tom DeLay cronies like Jim Ryun and Todd Tiahrt are not the kind of representation Kansas needs.

4. Begin to turn back the radical agenda in the Kansas Legislature by sending more Democrats to Topeka

- The do-nothing Republican legislature is determined to be a roadblock to progress. We need more Democrats in the Kansas House to help Governor Sebelius move this state forward.

Last month, Johnson County District Attorney Paul Morrison announced he would join the Kansas Democratic Party and run for Attorney General. He joined the Kansas Democratic Party because of our strong commitment to safety, security, and the rule of law. Morrison recognized that we are the party of commonsense leaders who work together for the best interests of Kansas families.

In the meantime, a top White House advisor has been indicted for leaking classified information and the President's approval rating is in the tank. Even here in Kansas President Bush has dropped 11 points to 43% since September.

We can elect Kansas Democrats up and down the 2006 ticket if we sign-up now, work together, contribute and back our fine Democratic team.
